Dear Mr. Dulles:

On behalf of Lieutenant General George W. Mundy, Commandant of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, and myself, I take great pleasure in extending to you a cordial invitation to address the two colleges in joint assembly at 9:00 A. M. on Tuesday, 29 April 1958, on a subject of your own choosing.

During this period the members of both colleges will be compiling a final estimate of the world situation and recommending courses of action to be pursued by the United States in the implementation of its foreign policy. Realizing your vast experience in international affairs, we are particularly anxious that the members of both colleges have the privilege of hearing your views on those matters which so vitally concern our national security.

General Mundy and I are looking forward to having you visit us once again at the colleges.

Sincerely yours,

E. T. WOOLDRIDGE
Vice Admiral, U. S. Navy
Commandant
